Having met the requirements for membership, I hereby make application for membership in the Seaside Italian American Club, Inc. Annual Membership dues are $50 for one year.

Members are encouraged to participate in work activities for the club. We look forward to your dedication, participation and devotion to as many of the following activities our club entails. Thank you for your interest in the Seaside Italian American Club, Inc.

We feel the most important activity is working on the Boardwalk when we promote a car raffle and would appreciate your making this a priority for the club.

Other activities include but are not limited to:

- House Committee - caring for the club buildings
- Bar duties.
- Kitchen Committee - preparing occasional meals.
- Entertainment Committee - setting up entertainment for various functions.
- Scholarship Committee - members will be selected for this particular committee.

Please feel free to volunteer for any committee that interests you. Committee participation is an integral part of being a Club member and we take great pride in all we do for our club and community. If for any reason you feel you cannot participate in a committee activity please let us know, we stress the importance of participation and your reason for non-participation will be discussed and evaluated.

New Members will serve a 30 day probation period and be a full voting member after (1) one year.
